Old Vine Zinfandel

Mendocino

The nose surprisingly starts out with melon and cantaloupe right off the bat, which leads into red licorice, watermelon, and bright strawberry. The palate is bright and refreshing with notes of sliced strawberries with a dash of simple syrup.

The Winemaking

This Zinfandel is barrel aged from once used American oak previous home to our Chardonnay. The grapes were cold soaked 5 days prior to open top fermentation then punched down 4 times daily for 21 days.

The Vineyard

We source this Zinfandel from our good friends the Johnson's up in Mendocino County. It is a great vineyard with old vines that bring the intense flavors and

The Vintage

The 2011 Vintage was long and cool and was noted by most as a very advantageous vintage for Northern California. The vintage kept the brix in check while fruit flavors and esters matured.
